ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We extend our thanks to all who contributed to the production of this report and assisted the Probation Services Task Force in its endeavors.

- We are truly grateful to the nearly 300 participants in Fresno, Glenn, Los Angeles, Placer, Santa Clara, and Santa Cruz counties who assisted with the snapshot study. These judiciary and court administration staff; senior probation officer staff, first-line supervisors, and line staff; county supervisors, administrative officers, and their representatives; prosecutors and defense bar; county community services agency staff; and private community service agency staff provided valuable information on probation in California that both informed the task force and helped identify priority issues.
- We express our heartfelt thanks to the 141 justice system participants who responded to our stakeholder survey. The input supplied by these chief probation officers, line probation officers, judicial officers, court administrators, county supervisors, county administrators, district attorneys, and defense attorneys provided the task force with a broad range of firsthand information regarding the views of participants and stakeholders. This input benefited the task force tremendously.
- We express our deep appreciation to the approximately 325 judicial officers, county supervisors and administrators, probation officers, public defenders, district attorneys, and other justice system participants who contributed input at the stakeholder roundtables and provided us with valuable information about the probation system.
- We are especially thankful to the more than 150 adult and juvenile probationers who participated in the roundtable discussions and provided us with their perspectives on the probation system.

- We are exceedingly grateful to Mr. Dennis Maloney of the Department of Community Justice in Deschutes County, Oregon; Ms. Dimitria Pope of the Research, Evaluation, and Development Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice; Mr. Frank Carmen of Juvenile Justice Services of the Supreme Court of the State of Arizona; Mr. Bert Aunan of Supervision Services of the State of Iowa; and Mr. Bill Burrell of the Probation Services Division of the Administrative Office of the New Jersey Courts for sharing their expertise and participating in the task force meetings.
  - We express our profound appreciation to the individuals and organizations that commented on the Probation Services Task Force Draft Interim Report. The insightful comments were of great assistance to the task force.
  - We are sincerely appreciative of the State Coalition of Probation Officers for its ongoing participation and interest in our efforts.
  - We are exceptionally thankful to Ms. Norma Suzuki, Executive Director of the Chief Probation Officers of California, for her devoted participation and commitment to furthering the work of the task force.
  - Finally, we express our gratitude to former task force members Hon. Juan Arumbula, Hon. Terry Friedman, Mr. Bryce Johnson, Hon. William Lebov, Hon. Barbara MacIver, Hon. Mike Nevin, and Mr. John Rhoads. Their excellent work as task force members is much appreciated.

Without the dedication and participation of each of these individuals and organizations, the Probation Services Task Force would not have been able to produce this final report and develop meaningful recommendations aimed at enhancing probation service delivery in California.
